AFTERNOON TEA | PALM COURT

THE BISTRO CAFÉ & COFFEE BAR

From pâtés, charcuterie and exotic cheeses to specialty coffees and freshly baked desserts, this Parisian-styled bistro serves all day nibbles, late-night small plates and wines by the glass. Centrally located on Tiffany Deck — the most social deck aboard both ships — with views of the Atrium, this is an ideal spot to meet in advance of trips ashore or to regroup upon return. For the sweet tooth, The Bee Sting Cake (or German “Bienenstich”) remains a favorite; its layers of sweet pastry dough filled with vanilla Bavarian cream and topped with honey and almonds are swoon worthy.

PALM COURT AFTERNOON TEA

This elegant venue is surrounded with expansive walls of glass allowing for fabulous views of sea and port; and when the sunshine filters in late each day, it becomes the dreamy setting for Crystal’s renowned Afternoon Tea. Fine finger sandwiches and savories, fresh scones with clotted cream and preserves, and homemade tea cakes and cookies are served along with a variety of traditional and exotic teas. A themed “Mozart Tea” recalls the opulence of 18th-century royalty and society, while the “Chocolate Tea” is pure indulgence.

TRIDENT GRILL BURGERS, MELTS & SALADS

Enjoy easy al fresco poolside dining on made-to-order Black Angus Burgers, Impossible Vegan Burgers, Grilled Reubens, pizzas, wraps, salads and more. Crystal's popular Late Risers Breakfast is served here, too, from 10-11 am, accommodating those who prefer to sleep in with bites of deliciousness like Blueberry Lemon Blintzes, Forest Berry "Stew" and Sour Cream, Buttermilk Pancakes, Traditional French Toast, Steak & Eggs prepared with Black Angus minute steak, eggs-to-order and crispy home fries.

Be awe-struck by Easter Island's towering moai before drenching your spirit amidst the emerald-clad mountains, lush gardens and spectacular beaches unique to Polynesia.

AUSTRALIA, INDONESIA & MYANMAR

INDIAN OCEAN, AFRICA & THE MEDITERRANEAN

A maiden call in Haa Alif Atoll in the Maldives begins the remote journey to idyllic isles in Seychelles and the spice history and Stone Town of Zanzibar in Tanzania. Three days in Mombasa presents Big Five safari options, followed by Egypt's UNESCO treasures and monuments to antiquity throughout the Aegean, Adriatic and Ionian seas.

WEWAK, PAPUA NEW GUINEA

CORAL CAYS & COASTAL HEADLANDS

Once the domain of Japanese warplanes, Wewak is all tranquility today. Lush waterfalls, green mountains and paradise-like beaches set the scene, and the Sepik River opens onto the sea nearby. This legendary watercourse, New Guinea's longest, winds through some of the Pacific's most pristine terrain and is home to myriad and colorful indigenous tribes, including the heavily scarred Crocodile Men. The region's folk art is much revered for its character and diversity.

RETURN TO THE 2023 OCEAN CRUISE CALENDAR

the 2023 OCEAN COLLECTION

Immersive, enriching and engaging can best describe our 2023 Ocean Collection. Follow your dreams and discover as you wish: journeys span from exotic, tropical and remote retreats to culturally rich and deeply spiritual explorations ranging from 6 to 23 nights (and a 140-night World Cruise, too!).

Bridging shoreside discovery with onboard luxuries — the lauded Crystal Experience was voted #1 in Condé Nast Traveler's 2020 Readers' Choice Awards, and the very best for food, service, nightlife and romance in Travel + Leisure's 2020 World's Best Awards — both Crystal Symphony and Crystal Serenity will offer extended seasons throughout the Mediterranean and Europe. Crystal Symphony will spend the entire year sailing abroad, exploring places from Vietnam, Cambodia, Yangon and India to destinations including Kuwait, Qatar, the UAE and Egypt. Crystal Serenity will also navigate the shores of North America, with routes revealing treasures from Canada to the Caribbean.

TAJ MAHAL | MUMBAI, INDIA

CARIBBEAN & the Panama Canal

No matter where in the world you've traveled, there is something so blissfully welcoming and serenely comforting about the Caribbean. It's a little bit about the powdered sugar sands and warm trade winds, and a lot about the clear blue waters and coral reefs, the verdant volcanic peaks, the rainforest sanctuaries. It's the new world markets and old-world mansions, the food, the rum, and of course, the hospitality. Add to that the wonder of a Panama Canal transit and you have the makings of an incredible vacation.

UNESCO SITES & SPECIAL HIGHLIGHTS

- ♦ Pitons Management Area, St. Lucia
- ♦ Cartagena Port, Fortresses and Monuments
- ♦ Islands and Protected Areas of the Sea of Cortez

- ♦ Blue and John Crow Mountains, from Ocho Rios
- ♦ Casco Viejo and Historic District, Panama
- ♦ Brimstone Hill Fortress National Park, St. Kitts & Nevis

CARIBBEAN GEMS

Nature and man share these islands in delicious harmony. Rainforested peaks vault dramatically skyward, shimmering beaches receive the sea's kiss — and its pounding surf. Snorkel into a living aquarium in Turks & Caicos, dance to rhythmic soca in Barbados, mingle with celebs in Gustavia, and graze for culinary delights in colorful Fort-de-France.

RIBBON OF DREAMS

The Panama Canal bridges the Central American isthmus from one sea to another, vastly expanding your journey's horizons along the way. This century-old engineering marvel lifts your Crystal ship some 85 feet above sea level as it traverses mountainous jungle through Gatun's massive locks — at times clearing by just inches. Unforgettable.

CENTRAL & SOUTH AMERICA

South of Cozumel's palm tree-lined beaches (it's also a gateway to the Mayan ruins of Cobá, Tulum and Chichén Itzá), and Costa Maya's kayaking, rafting and swimming adventures (and the lesser-explored Mayan ruins of Kohunlich and Dzibanche), the UNESCO-listed Belize Barrier Reef awaits, as do the tropical wonders of Roatán Island.

GARDEN CITY OF THE EAST

Sri Lanka's capital until recent times, Colombo is filled with an intriguing blend of cosmopolitan buildings and ancient temples, and serves as gateway to UNESCO sites including the Old Town of Galle and the Sacred City of Kandy. A key stop on the spice routes, Portuguese, Dutch, and British trading companies left behind churches, monuments and religions, as well as smatterings of their languages that have been incorporated into the speech and daily routine of the local Sri Lankans.

AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND & the exotics

From the serenity of the South Pacific, with its fabled scenery and impossibly blue waters, to the mysteries of little-explored Papua New Guinea and the intrigue of Indonesia this corner of the world has long piqued the curiosities of the most ardent travelers. Down here, Australia commands a lot of attention: it's big and bold yet cultured and inviting; it's ancient rock art and cutting-edge cuisine. Equally enchanting is New Zealand, home to breathtaking fjords and legendary Maori culture.

From ancient Athens to the beaches of Eilat, or gleaming Dubai to the temples and Bollywood manses of Mumbai, explore the Med, the Red and the Arabian seas. These journeys trace the storied spice routes of old, traveling back to the earliest roots of civilization — and forward to modern cities marking their vault into the future. You'll visit landmarks sacred and secular, settlements grand and humble, landscapes lush and arid. You might swim with turtles in Oman, sip fresh-pressed olive oil in Crete, experience the morning light in Petra, or wander the souks of Dubai. What you won't do is spend even a minute underwhelmed.

THE WONDERS OF EGYPT & JORDAN

West of beachy Safage, a World Heritage nirvana awaits: the Temples of Luxor and Karnak and the desert tombs of Tutankhamun and Ramses II in the Valley of the Kings. Jordan's port city of Aqaba is known for its vibrant coral reefs and equally colorful neighbor: the ancient Rose City of Petra; carved into solid red mountain sandstone over 2,000 years ago, it remained hidden to modern eyes for centuries. Chiseled by nature for far longer, the desert landscape of Wadi Rum is yet another UNESCO treasure — and an excellent stand-in for Mars.

THE ARABIAN PENINSULA

Spend glamorous overnights in the Emirates, where Dubai and Abu Dhabi duel for whose skyline is loftier, whose shopping is more luxe, and whose traditional souks are more labyrinthine. In Doha, witness Qatar's astounding growth as a cultural and political nexus in the region. Spend a day on a Persian Gulf island of free-roaming giraffes, cheetahs and gazelles — and luxury hotels. In volcano-ringed Muscat, take in Oman's intriguing blend of Arab, Indian, African and European accents and its modern masterpieces of Islamic architecture.

MUSCAT, OMAN

Ringed by volcanic mountains and guarded by two Portuguese forts, Muscat is a picturesque blend of Arab, Indian, African and European styles, thanks to the ordinance that traditional architecture must take precedence over high-rise buildings. Outside of city center, swim with sea turtles in nearby lagoons and relax on inviting beaches.

FLORENCE (LIVORNO), ITALY

Giotto, Brunelleschi, Botticelli and Michelangelo made their marks of genius here. This cradle of the Renaissance owes its UNESCO status to the overwhelming influence the city and its museums, churches, architecture and artworks have had on Europe and, ultimately, the world. Vestiges of this enlightened period are everywhere today — at the Uffizi gallery, the Palazzos Pitta and Vecchio and throughout the city streets.

ROUEN, FRANCE

Gracing the river Seine, Rouen is picturesque, cultured and vibrant, its skyline crowned by the iconic spires of the Cathédrale Notre-Dame made famous by Claude Monet. This historic capital is where Richard the Lionheart was crowned Duke of Normandy and where Joan of Arc remains a symbolic figure. Rich with medieval history and vestiges of its English occupation during the 100 Years War, explore its cobblestoned pedestrian centers to see Gothic churches including Saint-Maclou and Saint-Ouen.

Tucked deep inside a mountain-walled fjord, this colorful town would look right at home in Norway. The bright wooden houses, the wandering reindeer, barking seals, snow-dusted peaks and cascading waterfalls. But its 100% Icelandic, rich with outdoor adventures and home to a vibrant arts scene. Hiking in Skalanes Nature Reserve promises sightings of diverse wildlife, on land and in the air. The floating geothermal pools at Vok Baths spa are a luxury not to be missed. NEW ENGLAND & CANADA

Still rugged with unspoiled wilderness, the northeast corner of North America is home to some of the world's most renowned cities — capitals of history and culture, finance and fashion. Here, where whales breach in the Gulf of St. Lawrence off the shores of Nova Scotia, you'll also explore revolutionary history in Boston and old-world enchantment in Vieux Québec, North America's only walled city. Come breathe in the crisp fall air as Mother Nature works her magic, casting a blanket of crimson, vermillion and ochre over historic landmarks and legendary destinations.

NEW ENGLAND & THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Beyond its legacies of “New World” discovery and monuments to revolutionary independence, more than its towering skyscrapers and world-renowned museums, New England enchants with extraordinary nature and rugged coastlines, the stark beauty of lighthouses and the delight of lobster bakes. From the artistic hamlet of Provincetown where pilgrims signed the Mayflower Compact to Bellevue Avenue in Newport where industrial age tycoons built their summer cottages, the cultured treasures and natural wonders of New England await.

CANADA

Claimed for England in the 1400s, for France in the 1500s, and for Scotland in the 1600s, the northeast corner of Canada is rich in cultured history, the nuances of which are eclipsed only by its beauty. Today, the whole of the nation is part of the British Commonwealth, yet its provinces and territories hold strong to their traditions: Québec is uber-French from its language to its food, while Nova Scotia is like stepping into Scotland to hear bagpipes and shop for authentic tartans. Come discover a kaleidoscope of wonders.

NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND

A stylish, world-famous yachting center with a long tradition of elegance, the colonial sections of Newport boast many authentic historic buildings, some dating back to the 1600s. Most impressive are the opulent summer “cottages” built by industrial-age tycoons. Fashioned after palaces of Europe, their interiors boast lavish use of marble, alabaster, gilt, mosaics and stained glass complemented by magnificent furnishings and fine tapestries.

CRUISE PROTECTION PROGRAM

To help ensure your peace of mind, we recommend you consider our Cruise Protection Programs, uniquely designed for the guests of Crystal. These programs provide travel insurance coverage and emergency assistance services preferred by most travelers. The programs provide reimbursement for penalties that may be assessed due to cancellations for covered reasons, and provide medical expense reimbursement for accidents or illness that may occur overseas. And, if your claim is denied due to a pre-existing medical condition, the Cruise Protection Program offers participants a special “Cruise Credit Rollover Feature” that allows you to apply the cancellation fees as a credit toward a future cruise.

PERSONAL SELECT AIR PROGRAM

All full-fare, full-cruise guests whose travel originates from a U.S. or Canadian airport only are eligible for Crystal Cruises’ optional Personal Select Air Program. This program allows eligible guests to select flights from a choice of multiple itineraries or in consultation with our experienced Crystal Air Travel Concierge. Guests may indicate their preference for our Personal Select Air Program at time of booking or at any time prior to sailing. Flight options will be made available ten months prior to cruise departure. Personal Select Air Program rates are based on the selected itinerary and include transfers between the airport and pier on embarkation/disembarkation dates. Guests participating in this optional program have the assurance of Crystal’s support in the event of unanticipated airline or cruise schedule changes or delays which may impact their air travel plans.

CRUISE FARE & PROMOTIONAL INFORMATION

Fares are cruise only per person in U.S. dollars, based on double occupancy for the first two full-fare guests in a stateroom or suite, include all promotional savings, and do not include taxes, fees and port charges, which vary by departure.
