Koningsdam, one of our newest ships, sails the best 7-day Alaska itinerary in the industry on this quintessential cruise through the fabled Inside Passage. Highlights include a full day of scenic cruising in Glacier Bay National Park, a visit to Skagway, and convenient Saturday departures.

Cruise to the dramatic twin Sawyer Glaciers at the head of Tracy Arm Fjord. Take a helicopter to an immense Juneau ice field and set down for a crunchy walk on glacial ice. Stroll along the same Skagway wooden boardwalks as the Klondike prospectors.

As you edge close to the face of Glacier Bay’s Margerie Glacier, listen for sumdum, or “white thunder,” the Tlingit word for the sound of glacial ice crashing into the sea. In Ketchikan join in a traditional dance at Beaver Clan House as part of your Tlingit Nation welcome. Catch a glimpse of a humpback breaching alongside your ship. En route back to Vancouver, enjoy a massage or a night of winetasting.

From Anchorage enjoy luxury rail to Denali National Park & Preserve, where you will have three full days to explore this wilderness wonderland. Then it’s on to Fairbanks to pan for some “color” of your own at Gold Dredge 8. The next day, a quick one-hour flight brings you to historic Dawson City, where the gold rush spirit lives on in places like Diamond Tooth Gerties and on board the iconic paddlewheeler Klondike Spirit.

Depart Whitehorse, capital of the Yukon, to ride the steep narrow gauge rails of the White Pass & Yukon Route Railroad into Skagway, staging grounds for the gold rush frenzy of 1898. Shop for a gold nugget of your own before cruising the Inside Passage to Glacier Bay and Ketchikan.
